Students: Please complete the application below and provide specific examples of how you have worked to develop the characteristics and qualities that reflect the tradition and ideals of your Jesuit education -- or as you know them, the qualities of the Grad at Graduation. Share with the selection committee how your demonstrated actions and/or participation in activities have led to your development as a Man for Others. All comments must be on your application; resumes, recommendations or other addenda will not be considered. In responding to each question, please add as many pages as necessary to this application, but please limit your response to each question to no more than 500 words.

1. Open to Growth: How have you sought out opportunities to stretch your mind, imagination, feelings and religious consciousness? How have you challenged yourself?
2. Intellectually Competent: How have you committed yourself to the pursuit of knowledge? How have you demonstrated self-motivation and recognized where your skills, talents and gifts lie? How have you fulfilled those expectations?
3. Religious: How have you examined your beliefs and established an active relationship with a religious tradition and community?
4. Loving and Kind: How have you moved beyond self-interest and self-focus in your relationships with others? How have you demonstrated kindness to others when no one else was watching/observing?
5. Committed to Doing Justice: How have you become aware of the many needs of others in local and wider communities? How have you started to acquire the skills and motivation necessary to live as a person for others?

Deadline: Please return completed applications by 11:59 p.m. on Sunday, March 1st to Jackie Jaeger at mothersguildscholarship@gmail.com If you do not receive a confirmation within 24 hours that your application has been received, please call her at 617-901-4551.
